

Fundamental Theorem of Algebra

*A degree d polynomial always has d roots
when counted with multiplicities over $\mathbb{C}$*

Homework: How many roots can we have over $\mathbb{R}$?

Fundamental Theorem of Algebra

*A degree d polynomial always has d roots
when counted with multiplicities over $\mathbb{C}$*

Homework: How many roots can we have over $\mathbb{R}$?

Enumerative Algebraic Geometry

- Count solutions with multiplicities
in projective geometry